Lawn Mowing season is fast approaching and as we have done since the beginning of St Joseph Parish we mow our own grass.

The church owns a zero radius turn mower and a push mower, all we need are operators.

If you are willing to help us out there is a sign up calendar in the back of church on the credenza.

We offer on the job training.

Any question's ask or call Ralph Meister 402-707-8426.

THE GIFT SHOP

Check out the traditional and/or unique gifts in our display case. Awesome gifts for First Communion, Confirmations, Baptisms, Birthdays or any special occasion. Questions and/or purchase, call or text Mary Johnson at 402-708-1317, Jeannie Schiebel at 402-943-6000, or Genee Bowen at 308-380-7789.

PRAY FOR SOMEONE

Heavenly Father,
 I pray for those people who are hurting and going through some unimaginable circumstances.
 I pray for those who want their lives to be better and to be free from those things that may be holding them back.
 Even though I may not know them.
 God knows their situation.
 In Jesus' name.
 Amen.

Dear St. Joseph Parishioners,

Today (or tomorrow, if you get this on Saturday) is Divine Mercy Sunday. On this day, Catholics are encouraged to pray for mercy for themselves and others. We are encouraged to receive Communion, go to confession, and pray for the Holy Father. Of particular importance is the recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy on this day. Any person who does all these things receives a plenary indulgence. This is why we are celebrating the feast.

A number of parishioners have asked me, "Father, what's next now that Live Lent Together has concluded?" During Easter, we will have a couple of events--the Easter Egg hunt this Wednesday, the May Crowning on May 1st, the Mother's Day Breakfast on May 8th, the close of RE on May 11th with food trucks and some bounce houses for kids--but we won't start up another series before Pentecost. Once the summer comes, we'll get started with some more activities. For now, we can enjoy Easter and celebrate that Jesus is risen!

Over the next few weeks, there may be a day or two when daily Mass is cancelled or replaced by a Communion service. We have the Journey of Faith regional meetings for Pastoral Planning between now and May 4th, and there are a couple of meetings pretty far to the north and northwest, in Clearwater and Hartington. I am not yet sure if those will be overnight meetings with travel. Please keep an eye on the schedule at the parish entrance.

Have a wonderful week!

Happy Easter,
Fr. Scott
