From the Pastor's Desk

Dear St. Joseph Parishioners,

This week, we've arrived at the halfway point of Lent. I hope that the first half has been fruitful for you. There's still plenty of time to profit from these weeks! Next week, we'll celebrate our parish feast day, the Feast of St. Joseph. Since the feast day is during the week, we'll have a special celebration on Sunday after Mass, along with our regular donut Sunday.

Have a great week!

Best,

Fr. Scott

Q: Why is rose worn this weekend?

A. It's a halfway marker. It's halfway between violet and white, marking the middle of Lent.

Join Deacon Terry Ficenec as you read through the book by Joe Heschmeyer about the transformation that happens to us when we truly recognize Jesus in the bread of the Holy Eucharist. Sign up in the narthex and grab a book. Classes will start Sunday, March 17th at 10am in the large RE room. Contact Deacon Terry with any questions at 402-677-5643.

Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

We hear how God reacted strongly against Israel's disobedience and infidelity, ultimately sending them to exile in Babylon. But God also showed mercy to Israel in sending king Cyrus of Persia to rescue them. As we enter the fourth Sunday of Lent, for what do you need God's mercy in your life?

Second Reading

Paul taught the Ephesians that be God's mercy and grace, we have been saved through Christ for the good works that God has prepared for us. Where in your life do you feel like you are doing God's work?

Gospel Reading

Jesus taught Nicodemus that God loves the world and desires to save it. In what ways do you show love and respect for our world?
