Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit." -John 12:23-24

NEW Parish Directory Pictures

The last chance to get your family photo taken this weekend. If you can't make it, kindly send a family photo to stjosephdirectory2024@gmail.com. Don't forget to verify your contact information that will be in the directory also!

What is the appropriate way to discard blessed palms from last year's Palm Sunday?

1. Bring them to church and place in basket in the narthex.
2. Bury them outside
3. Burn them

Remember in our Prayers

Let us pray for Margaret Wilson, Eileen Stock, and Brenda Jones. Pray also for all our parishioners who are homebound, hospitalized, and in nursing homes.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear St. Joseph Parishioners,

Next weekend, we'll enter into Passiontide. These are the last two weeks before Easter, and they include the week before Holy Week and Holy Week. Starting next weekend, you'll see the images in the church covered with violet cloth, as we prepare for the barrenness of Good Friday and then the radiance of Easter.

Also, starting this weekend, we'll have signups available for ministers for Holy Week in the entryway.

Have a great week!

Best,
Fr. Scott

Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

Through the prophet Jeremiah, God promised Israel "a new covenant": the Lord's law will be written in our hearts and known by all who believe. Do you know people who seem to have a heart-felt faith?

Second Reading

Hebrews teaches us that Jesus struggled with his own impending suffering and death. During this Lenten season, what has been a struggle for you?

Gospel Reading

Jesus taught that through his own suffering and death, he would drive out the "ruler of this world" (Satan) and draw everyone to himself. In what ways are you drawn to Christ?
