THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep."

-Mark 5:36, 38-39

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear St. Joseph Parishioners,

By way of reminder, we begin the 7:00am Mass next weekend. If you plan to attend that Mass, since there won't be any musicians, we will plan to read the entrance antiphon and Communion antiphon all together, just like we do at daily Mass. These can be found in the Breaking Bread hymnals in the pews. Also, we will not plan on distributing the Precious Blood, though we will add that in time, once we have enough ministers. We will have confessions available before both Masses on Sundays. Thanks be to God for the growth of our community that necessitates another Mass!

Have a great week!

Best,
Fr. Scott

Q: What makes a cathedral a cathedral?

A. The church which has a bishop's chair (called a cathedra) is a cathedral. This becomes the mother church of a diocese. Our cathedral is St. Cecilia's in Omaha.
