SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

John the Baptist appeared....saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!"

Excerpts from the lectionary for Mass copyright 2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear St. Joseph Parishioners,

As we look ahead this week, Monday is a holy day of obligation. It is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, the day in which we recall how God prepared Mary when she was conceived to be the Mother of God. It is also our national feast day. We'll have Mass at 6:45am and 5:30pm. After the evening Mass, there will be a time for Eucharistic adoration and confessions. In addition to our daily Confession times, we'll add another evening time closer to Christmas, too.

Have a great week!

Best,
Fr. Scott

Participate in the Offertory: Gift Bearers Needed

Beginning Sunday, November 30, the First Sunday of Advent, we will resume the practice of having families and individuals bring up the gifts during the 9:00 AM Mass. This beautiful tradition signifies the offering of our lives, our blessings, and our work to God, which are then united with the bread and wine brought to the altar.

We hope many parish families will take part in this meaningful act of participation in the liturgy. If you are interested in signing up, please contact Amanda Staroscik with the weekend you would like to serve at amanda@stjosephspringfield.org. This is a practice we plan to continue throughout the liturgical year.

Prayer Invitation

You are invited to stop by our chapel this week to write a prayer intention or light a candle for someone on your heart. Whether you're praying for a loved one, giving thanks, or asking for God's guidance, this is a beautiful way to pause, reflect, and lift your intentions to the Lord.

In the coming weeks, we will also be placing memorial crosses in the chapel, dedicated to those who have gone before us in faith. These will offer another meaningful way to remember, honor, and pray for our loved ones.

Second Advent Candle/Sunday: Peace

“May we be in this world a ray of that light which shone forth from Bethlehem, bringing joy and peace to the hearts of all men and women.” – Pope Francis

The second candle on the Advent wreath represents Peace. Like the first candle, it is also purple. Often called the “Bethlehem Candle,” the second Advent candle reminds us of Mary and Joseph’s journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem before Mary gave birth to Jesus. Building on the meaning of the Prophecy Candle, this second candle recalls that after all of the division, destruction, and dispersion of the kingdom in the Old Testament, there might finally be peace on Earth – Jesus is coming, and so is his Kingdom of Peace. As we read in the quote from Pope Francis, this light of peace shone forth from Bethlehem for all the world. This Advent, light the second candle on Sunday, December 7th, 2025.

Baselight Groups: Come and See

Have you felt a quiet tug on your heart—an invitation to go a little deeper, to grow in faith, or to simply not walk the journey alone? Our Baselight groups offer a space to pause, reflect, and be strengthened by the companionship of others seeking Christ in the midst of daily life.

Our Men's Baselight Group meets on Saturday mornings at 7:00am, and our Women's Baselight Group gathers on Monday evenings at 7:00pm. Each group offers simple conversation, Scripture reflection, and an encouraging place to share life and faith. Both groups meet at St. Joseph in the RE building. If you've been wondering what these small groups are all about, perhaps this is your moment to "come and see."

Holy Day of Obligation and Adoration—December 8th

In this Advent season of hope and anticipation, we are invited to pause and reflect on God's unfolding plan of salvation. December 8th is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, the feast that celebrates Mary being conceived without original sin, prepared by God from the very beginning to be the mother of Jesus, the Light coming into the world.

Masses will be celebrated on Monday, December 8th at 6:45AM & 5:30 PM. Following the 5:30 PM Mass, we will offer a quiet time of adoration and confessions, a perfect opportunity to rest with the Lord and prepare your heart for Christ's coming.

Questions of the Week

Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading

Isaiah foresaw God's future when the world will be ruled by a new and ideal "King David" ("a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse") and the earth will be filled with knowledge of the Lord. What do you hope for in your future?

Second Reading

Paul encouraged the community of believers in Rome to be in harmony with each other in thought and mind. Are there relationships in your life you consider to be harmonious?

Gospel Reading

John the Baptist taught the people to prepare for the kingdom of heaven by repenting of sins and producing "good fruits." what could you do this second week of Advent to make a positive impact?

Live The Liturgy

The story of Advent is a story of repentance. John the Baptist help up a mirror to the chosen people. He urged them to look at what they saw there. This Advent, will we look in the mirror? Will we choose repentance?
